1.9 Summary

A framework has been outlined of three categories of technique (univariate, graphical/distributional and multivariate) and four analysis stages (representing communities, discriminating sites/conditions, determining levels of stress and linking to environmental variables). The most powerful tools are in the multivariate category, and those that underlie the PRIMER routines are now examined from first principles.

Revision #4
Created 10 February 2022 12:12:53 by Arden
Updated 23 May 2022 09:37:18 by Arden